FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

This weekend we say goodbye to our parish Director of Music for the past five years: Kristin Dabaghian. We are most grateful for all that Kristin has done to provide beautiful music at liturgy and many other times throughout her five years as Director. As Kristin takes over the position of organist at the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark, we know that God will continue to use her substantial giftedness to touch the hearts of those who come to pray and worship God. We look forward to hearing Kristin during the year at the Cathedral Basilica, but we are also sure we will continue to see her as part of our parish family. Our prayers go with Kristin as she continues to respond to the call of God to share her talents with others.

Last week, I got together with about thirty members of our parish Music Ministry to find out from them what they hope for in a new Director of Music, and to listen to some of their ideas. We will continue to meet some very talented people who have applied, and look forward to hiring someone soon. Until then, I am most grateful to Toni and Gary Cecere for being willing to provide music for liturgy throughout the rest of the summer. Please keep our Music Ministry in your prayers!

Some of you have had the opportunity to meet Fr. Everest Baniyet from Nigeria. Fr. Everest will be with us until early September. This week Fr. Patrick will return to Nigeria for some time with his family, and with the absence of Fr. Paul we are grateful to Fr. Everest for his assistance. I hope many of you get the chance to know Fr. Everest. His joy and goodness is an inspiration. Last week, someone sent me this article written by a parish priest. I wanted to share it with you because I thought I had some great insights on the relationship between sports and faith. The article is entitled “Can We Please Pursue Spiritual Excellence At Least as Hard as We Do for Sports and Academics?” Please share this article with parents, it seems like a great reflection for them especially as they make decisions regarding their children. Anyway, here is the article: “Anything we deem as important we usually will try to master”. You see this with athletes. They will alter exercise routines, nourishment, and upend their schedule to grow better at a sport. You see this with gamers. They will spend inordinate amounts of time and energy to up their skill level to get better. You see this with craftsmen. They will dig down and learn techniques that help them master their trade. You see this with serious scholars who will spend hour upon hour learning, studying, and expanding their understanding. You see this with body builders who will get meticulous about nutrition, exercise, and spend long hours in the gym to sculpt what they deem to be the perfect body. These all take dedication and a willingness to sacrifice and suffer for whatever they deem worthy of that time and energy. It is true for physical pursuits. It is true for intellectual pursuits.

Here is a fact: it is also true for spiritual pursuits. While God gives us grace, the pursuit of holiness is not easy. Like matters of the body and soul, it requires discipline, time, energy, and a willingness to sacrifice and suffer to grow stronger.*

*Here is another fact, a rather sobering one: the athlete and bodybuilder end up dying like anyone else. So does the gamer, the scholar, the craftsmen. Don't let these pursuits become so primary that you ignore the only thing that lasts: your soul

We allow the pursuit of the temporary crowd out the pursuit of the eternal. We believe we can regulate the eternal as a matter of convenience that will be attended to once activities we deem more important are sated. This is short sighted. We teach our children what is more important and worthy of our time.*

This is not an either/or proposition. One can be a great athlete, scholar, or craftsmen without neglecting their soul. It is about priority and discipline. Think about this when the choice between sports and faith comes up. Think about this when you cede ground on Sundays to yet more worldly activities. Balance. That is what I am proposing. To quote Christ: ‘What good is it for someone to gain the whole world yet forfeit their soul?’ (Mark 8:36)”

Special thanks to all those who helped us welcome three homeless families last week as our special guests. Through Bergen Family Promise, we were able to assist these families with a place to stay, great food to eat, and a caring community to embrace and support them in a time of need. This we do, as we do all good things, in Christ's name.

Hope you are enjoying summertime!

Peace in the Lord,
Father John

After all the Masses we have introduced The St. Paul Summer Cafe on the church plaza. This is a wonderful way to mingle and socialize with your St. Paul Family! Two volunteers are needed for each Mass every Sunday to help organize! If you would like to get involved, please email dschifano@stpaulrcchurch.org or call the parish office at 201-327-0976!

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Your help is needed to enact the Pain Capable Unborn Child Protection Act – on both the Federal and NJ state level. This legislation would protect innocent babies from enduring the pain of late-term abortion (20 weeks – or 5 months – post fertilization and beyond). Contact NJ legislators, and ask them to support NJ Bills A-3452 and S-2026. For contact information on legislators, and other ways to get involved, visit: <http://babiesinthewombfeelpain.com/get-involved/> and www.stpaulrcchurch.org

Everyday Activities Can Be Pro-Life ! Jesus mentions things we are to do that are called corporal works of mercy!

- Feeding the hungry: this also includes helping to support pregnant moms at shelters and homes for them
- Giving drink to the thirsty: pass out water at a nursing home for the elderly

- Clothing the naked: provide blankets, baby clothes, diapers to expectant moms
- Sheltering the homeless: how about helping aged folks from foreclosure? Or giving someone a room
- Visiting the sick: too many are abandoned in nursing homes and assisted living homes; families don't visit and the sick find it difficult to go out
- Comforting the imprisoned: men and women in prison are often cut off from their families; help them make family connections
- Burying the dead: help pay funeral or burial costs for the poor or elderly.

Pro-life means advocating and supporting a culture of life from conception to natural death. Jesus said what we do to others we do to him. [G. DeMoras, letter to editor, Our Sunday Visitor, 6/24/18]

You Can Play an Important Role in St Paul Stephen Ministry . . .

. . . Because you may know of a friend, neighbor, co-worker, or relative who is going through a difficult time and who could benefit from the focused care, encouragement, and support of a Stephen Minister. If you know of someone who is hurting, St Paul's Stephen Ministry provides confidential, one-on-one faith filled support. Stephen Ministers are trained care-givers who listen, pray, encourage and offer the love of Christ during times of need.

Contact Anne Palladino at annaitalia20@aol.com. She will talk with you about how we can connect the person you know with one of our Stephen Ministers. It's a great way for you to show how much you care!

We have received $81,610.00 in pledges with 210 donors putting us at 72.28% of our goal.

Thank you to those parishioners who have already shown your support and generosity.

Will you join your fellow parishioners in supporting this effort which strengthens many important programs and ministries across the Archdiocese of Newark and which make our own parish a more vibrant place of worship?

Our Goal, $114,079.00, can only be achieved through YOUR generosity!

If you have yet to give, please pick up a pledge form at the back of the church or visit www.rcan.org/sharing.

YOUR gift will truly make a difference. Thank you for your prayers and support.

SUMMERTIME

"Summertime and the living is easy." That's what the favorite old song says. The living may be easy, but often the giving is not. Summer collections often drop significantly in our parish because of vacation travel, sports schedules and other activities that cause parishioners to attend Mass in other parishes. If you would like to make your giving easy and consistent this summer, please consider our electronic giving option. If you would like to learn more, please contact the parish office or go to our website, www.stpaulrchurch.org and click on the
